

Community gardens Moonee Ponds

Community Gardens

There are two well-established community gardens in Moonee Valley.

East Keilor Sustainability Street Inc. Community Garden

Where: Tuppal Reserve

What: East Keilor Sustainability Street Inc. is a group of residents whose aim is to source and use water, food and power in a sustainable way.

More about the East Keilor Sustainability Street Inc.

Essendon Community Gardens

Where: At the end of Fenton and Brisbane Streets, alongside Moonee Ponds Creek.

What: Established in 1978, this is one of the oldest community gardens in metropolitan Melbourne. The Essendon Community Gardens provides land for people to grow their own produce. Come socialise with some supportive gardeners and exchange your produce.